EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Glen Michael on 10/13/04.

The application has been amended as follows: In claim 1, lines 12, 18, 35, 39 and 41 the word "it" has been replaced with --- said first coded information symbol ----, --said second coded information symbol---, ---- said each partial channel ---, ---- said each partial channel of the first set of partial channels ----, and ---- said each partial channel of the second set of partial channels ----, respectively.

In claims 2, line 3, the word "it" has been replaced with --- said each partial channel of the transmission channel ----.

In claim 20, line 3, the word "it" has been replaced with --- said unit for equalizing ---.

In claim 21, lines 12, 18, 34, 37 and 40 the word "it" has been replaced with --- said first coded information symbol ----, ---said second coded information symbol---, ---- said each partial channel ---, ---- said each partial channel of the first set of partial channels ----, and ---- said each partial channel of the second set of partial channels ----, respectively.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record fail to anticipate or render obvious the following recited features: a unit for assigning the combined coded information symbols of the first set to the first set of partial channels and for assigning the combined coded information symbols of the second set to the second set of partial channels in such a way that each partial channel has a combined coded information symbol assigned to said each partial channel, that each partial channel of the first set of partial channels has the whole information of the information symbols of the first set assigned to said each partial channel of the first set of partial channels, and that each partial channel of the second set of partial channels has the whole information of the information symbols of the second set assigned to said each partial channel of the second set of partial channels as recited in claims 1 and 21. A second unit second for decoding the coded information symbols of the second set so as to recapture the information assigned to the coded information symbols of the second set, the second unit decoding being designed to also decode at least one partial channel second partial channels of the second set of partial channels as recited in claim 16.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
